The BCFA is delighted to announce that the Halle St Peter's has been chosen to host our Northern Dinner 2022. Located in the heart of the city, the Victorian building is part of the local community. Following a multi-million pound refurbishment, this deconsecrated church has been transformed into an elegant, flexible space which our members and guests can experience and enjoy.

You and your guests will be welcomed with a glass of bubbly, followed by a delicious three course dinner in the main hall with its unique original features creating an unbeatable atmosphere. Half a bottle of wine is allocated per guest, and there will be a cash bar operating throughout the evening. There will be entertainment during the evening and music and dancing.

Ticket prices are £149+ VAT (£178.80 inc VAT) per person

Please complete the form below to book your places.

There is a minimum booking requirement of two places. Tables are of ten so if you require a full table, please book ten places.
