

CIUK and Planet Mark Zero Carbon Essential Workshops

Tuesday 28th February
10am - 1pm

London Venue TBC

This CPD-certified training session will ensure you gain a good understanding of net zero carbon and what achieving a credible net zero target means for your business.

This workshop will:

- Demystify jargon and provide you with a thorough understanding of commonly used terminology relating to net zero carbon, such as emission scopes, carbon offsets, carbon neutral and more.
- Provide you with an overview of the main drivers for why businesses seek to set net zero targets and take immediate action.
- Provide you with the opportunity to reflect on the main sources of carbon emissions in your business, and what could be done to reduce them.
- Energy Saving Ideas in response to the current energy crisis.
- Introduce the UN-backed Race to Zero campaign so that you understand what's entailed in making a net zero pledge through the Planet Mark website.
